Let's Start!

Getting to the job fair isn't easy!

Learning Outcome

Identify and describe jobs and careers in both work and social contexts appropriate for the interlocutor.

Can Do Statements

- I can ask for and give directions.
- I can talk about buildings and structures.
- I can ask for clarification.

Ask your partner:

- Do you have a good sense of direction or do you often get lost?
- When you get lost, how do you find your way? Who or what do you consult?

Let's Explore!

Kristi asks a passerby for directions.

* A "passerby" is a person who is walking past you on the sidewalk.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Kristi: This is taking forever! I'm better off just asking someone for directions.
Excuse me ma'am?
- Passerby: Yes.
- Kristi: I'm looking for the convention center. How do I get there from here?
- Passerby: The convention center? It's a bit of a way, about a twenty-minute bus ride from here I'd say.
- Kristi: Which bus do I have to take?
- Passerby: The quickest way to get there would be to take the number 6 bus. To catch that bus, you're going to walk straight ahead. You'll pass a parking garage, turn right at that corner. Keep walking until you see the bus stop.
- Kristi: I'm sorry, I'm not following you. When I pass by the parking garage, what do I do?
- Passerby: Turn right at that corner. The parking garage is opposite the car dealership.
- Kristi: Alright and then I'll see the bus stop?
- Passerby: That's correct.
- Kristi: Oh, which stop do I get off at?
- Passerby: It takes about 20 minutes to get to the convention center. You're going to get off at Willowdale.
- Kristi: I'm sorry, I didn't get that. Which stop is that?
- Passerby: Willowdale.
- Kristi: Willowdale. Got it.
- Passerby: The stop is kitty corner to the fire station.
- Kristi: Where is the convention center from there?
- Passerby: When you get off at the stop, turn left. Walk down the street until you see the aquarium. Walk past the aquarium. Keep walking until you see the arena. The convention center is across the street from the aquarium.
- Kristi: Thanks.

Let's Practice!

Kristi needs some help to get to the convention center.

Instructions: Underline the incorrect words in the sentences. Re-write the sentence correctly. Use capital letters where necessary.

1) I'm looking for the convention garage center.

2) It's a bit of a way, about a twenty-minute bus ride stop from here I'd say.

3) You'll pass a parking center garage, make a right at that corner.

4) Keep walking until you see the bus center stop.

5) The parking garage is opposite the car kitty dealership.

6) The stop is kitty cat corner to the fire station.

Let's Practice!

Kristi isn't following* the instructions.

* To follow can mean to understand what someone is saying.

Instructions: Read the sentences. Circle the best option to complete the sentences. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. _____ bus do I have to take?
(Which / That / Where)

2. _____ do I get off at?
(When / Where / Who)

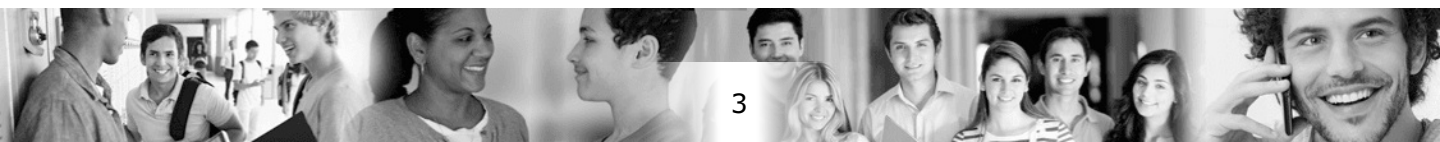

3. Alright and _____ I'll see the bus stop?
(then / when / there)

4. Okay. Willowdale. _____.
Got it / Go it / Get it

3. Where is the convention center _____ there?
(to / from / in)

4. I'm sorry, I'm not _____ you.
(following / coming / going)

5. Sorry, I didn't _____ that.
Which stop is it?
(set / get / bet)

Extension Activity

Give directions to your partner.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Print a map of your city or a part of your city.
- Choose two points, a starting point and a destination on the map. Do not mark them on the map. Your partner will also choose a starting point and destination on the same map.
- Write down clear instructions for traveling from the starting point to the destination.
- Do not tell your partner what the destination is. Read your instructions to your partner. See if your instructions are clear enough that he or she arrives at the correct destination. Listen to your partner's directions.

Target Words

- a bit of a way (expression): a short distance
e.g. The convention center is a bit of a way, about a twenty-minute bus ride from here.
- parking garage (noun): a building with open sides in a public place where cars can be parked e.g. You'll pass a parking garage.
- car dealership (noun): a place that sells and buys cars
e.g. The parking garage is opposite the car dealership.
- get off (verb): to leave a vehicle like a bus or train e.g. Where do I get off at?
- fire station (noun): a building for fire equipment and firefighters e.g. Willowdale is opposite the fire station.
- kitty corner (expression): used to describe two things that are situated diagonally opposite each other
Example: The stop is kitty corner to the fire station.
- aquarium (noun): a building people can visit to see water animals and plants e.g. The convention center is across the street from the aquarium.
- arena (noun): a building for sports and other forms of entertainment that has a large central area surrounded by seats
e.g. Keep walking until you see the arena.

Learning Points

Compound Nouns

A compound noun is composed of two or more words.

Usually, a compound noun is a [noun + noun] combination or an [adjective + noun] combination, but other combinations are possible (see below).

Each compound noun functions as a single noun and can be modified by adjectives.

There are three forms for compound nouns:

1. open, or spaced - with a space between the words (convention center)
2. hyphenated - with a hyphen between the words (six-pack)
3. closed or solid - with no space or hyphen between the words (bedroom)

Pronunciation

The first word in a compound noun is usually stressed the most. In the phrase "full stop", both words have equal stress (content words like adjectives and nouns are always stressed). With the compound noun "bus stop", "bus" is stressed more than "stop" (even though both words are nouns, or content words).

Stress is important when using compound nouns. Stress patterns help us determine if somebody is talking about a house that is painted green ("a GREEN HOUSE") or a glass building for growing plants inside ("a GREENhouse").

Examples:

- I'm looking for the convention center.
- It's a bit of a way, about a twenty-minute bus ride from here I'd say.
- You'll pass a parking garage, make a right at that corner.
- Keep walking until you see the bus stop.
- The parking garage is opposite the car dealership.
- The stop is kitty corner to the fire station.

Learning Points

Asking for Clarification

Sometimes you don't understand what was said or something was not clear to you. It is, therefore, important to express your lack of understanding and get them to clarify the information you need.

When you ask for information and you don't understand what was said, you need to ask for clarification. There are a number of ways to do this.

If you are unsure of a word you can repeat it as a question or repeat the information to ensure that it is correct.

For example:

I'm looking for the convention center.

The convention center?

Alright, and then I'll see the bus stop?

You can also directly ask for more specific details.

For example:

Which bus do I have to take?

Where do I get off at?

There are some expressions you can use to express that you don't understand someone and to ask for clarification.

For example:

I'm sorry, I'm not following you.

Sorry, I didn't get that. Which stop is it?

Examples:

- Which bus do I have to take?
- Where do I get off at?
- Alright, and then I'll see the bus stop?
- Okay. Willowdale. Got it.
- Where is the convention center from there?
